

THE EDUCATIONAL SERVICE CENTER
(ESC) OF NORTHEAST OHIO

DISRUPTING POVERTY IN OHIO SERIES 2020-2021

EMOTIONAL POVERTY
CULTURAL COMPETENCY FOR THE CLASSROOM
POWERFUL CLASSROOM PRACTICES FOR DISRUPTING POVERTY
SOCIAL JUSTICE IN EDUCATION

1:00 - 3:00 PM - Virtual

Register for each session individually at: www.escneo.org
(Professional Development/Calendar of Events)

EMOTIONAL POVERTY OCTOBER 13, 2020

Presenter: Shelly Habegger, Ph.D.
Shelly Habegger, Ph.D. is Curriculum Director at Barberton City Schools. She is certified as a trainer for Emotional Poverty, using strategies developed by Ruby Payne.

In this workshop, participants will learn

- Why everyone has emotional outbursts
- How to handle our own emotions
- Ways to address anger, anxiety and violence
- Strategies and best practices that work in the classrooms.

Prior to the session, participants may wish to order the book, Emotional Poverty in all Demographics: How to Reduce Anger, Anxiety and Violence in the Classroom by Ruby Payne, Ph.D.

Cost: $25.00 per person

CULTURAL COMPETENCE FOR THE CLASSROOM NOVEMBER 4, 2020

Presenter: Lisa Scott, SST-3 Consultant
Lisa Scott is a consultant for the State Support Team - Region 3. She is an experienced educator who facilitates the Ohio Improvement Process with districts. She provides expertise with curriculum mapping, formative assessments and Positive Behavior Intervention Support (PBIS).

During this two-hour session, participants will review and learn

- Core principles of Culturally-Responsive Teaching
- Cultural Responsiveness in Literacy and
- Cultural Responsiveness as a relationship building tool between teachers and students.

Cost: FREE!

POWERFUL CLASSROOM PRACTICES FOR DISRUPTING POVERTY NOVEMBER 30, 2020

Presenters: Paula Kucinic and Nadine Grimm, ESC of Northeast Ohio
Paula Kucinic is the Director of Professional Development and Instructional Technology at the ESC of Northeast Ohio, and Nadine Grimm is Coordinator of 21st Century Learning. Both have engaged with researchers and collaborated with districts to develop the Disrupting Poverty in Ohio Network.

In this session, participants will explore

- Evidence-based frameworks for addressing poverty issues
- Classroom practices for developing supportive learning environments
- Strategies to improve outcomes for children and families.

Cost: $25.00 per person

SOCIAL JUSTICE IN EDUCATION JANUARY 25, 2021

Presenter: Charesha Barrett, Educational Leader and Diversity Practitioner
Charesha Barrett is the founder and president of CHARP Education (CHARPED), a diversity and inclusion consulting and training organization. Charesha is an experienced presenter on the topics of implicit bias, racial equity and cultural competency. She is a social justice facilitator who seeks to establish common ground that values diverse perspectives.

Participants in this session will

- Recognize the importance of integrating social justice in the classroom
- Learn how to use the Social Justice Standards
- Explore anti-bias lesson plans and activities.

Cost: $25.00 per person

REGISTRATION HELP

RONI.STAIMPEL@ESCNEO.ORG

PROGRAM QUESTIONS

NADINE.GRIMM@ESCNEO.ORG

Register Online

WWW.ESCNEO.ORG

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT/CALENDAR OF EVENTS

