

Lindsey Hoffman is an Independently Licensed Social Worker with her supervision credential. She has also obtained her ECMH credential. Lindsey has been working with Applewood Centers for 7 years this November. She started her career at Applewood in the In-Home Department as a Mental Health Therapist, specializing in Early Childhood Mental Health and Consultation. About 4 years ago she became a Clinical Supervisor in the In-Home Department, specializing with the staff in the Early Childhood Mental Health Program. Recently, she has begun doing work as an Outpatient Therapist at Applewood Centers also. Before she worked at Applewood Centers, Lindsey worked as an Youth Advocate at the Domestic Violence Center, currently known as DVCAC (Domestic Violence and Child Advocacy Center). She quit there to pursue her master's degree in Social Work. Lindsey has also completed both undergraduate and graduate internships at WomenSafe, the domestic violence shelter in Geauga County working with both the women and the youth.
