Student Wellness Department

A lot has happened since our last newsletter! The Student Wellness Department has begun to expand in 2020. We welcome two additional staff as Student Wellness System Navigators to support the districts, Cathy Papp, LISW, who has an extensive background in behavioral health and schools and Heather Corcoran, JD, with an extensive background in juvenile justice as well as program development. They will be transitioning from their current positions to the Educational Service Center of Northeast Ohio (ESC of Northeast Ohio) in the upcoming months.

Governor DeWine has increased the budget to provide multiple funding opportunities for schools and communities to address the need for increased access of mental health services for Ohio's youth. The Ohio Department of Education and Ohio Mental Health and Addiction Services (OMHAS) have partnered together in structuring the utilization for these funds. The ESC of Northeast Ohio Student Wellness staff have been meeting with multiple districts to partner and provide support on their plans for both Student Wellness and Success, and The Alcohol Drug Addictions and Mental Health Services (ADAMHS) Board of Cuyahoga County K-12 Preventions Services funds and completing district Self-Assessment Surveys. The ESC of Northeast Ohio, in collaboration with other ESCs across the region was just awarded the Prevention Education Professional Development grant to increase capacities of ESC in districts for prevention education. More to come on this opportunity.

The ESC of Northeast Ohio congratulates the Mental Health Network for School Success, Miami University, and Mental Health America grant award to provide YMHFA and MHFA to all Ohioans! To expand the number of individuals trained in Mental Health First Aid with a focus on information participants can use to help adolescents and transition-age youth 12-21, minority, older adult, and faith-based communities. The ESC of Northeast Ohio, Student Wellness Department will collaborate with them to promote and offer upcoming trainings.

The current Student Wellness Coordinator, Mary Wise and Denise Pietrzak, LISW-S, System Navigator Consultant, continue to provide consultation and support to districts. The requests from districts have been on a specific topic or resource needed (ie; trauma, universal screeners, professional development opportunities), to addressing barriers for mental health access and resources, tiered frameworks, navigating and linking county and local systems/providers, attendance, Social Emotional Learning resources, assisting in the development of guidelines and protocols such as: suicide, threat assessments, bullying, and re-entry transition processes.

March 1, 2020: Self-Injury Awareness Day

Recent studies have found that one-third to one-half of adolescents in the US have engaged in some type of non-suicidal self-injury, although some studies put the rate at 13 to 23 percent.

For some people, when depression and anxiety lead to a tornado of emotions, they turn to self-harm looking for a release. Self-harm and self-injury are any forms of hurting oneself on purpose. Usually, when people self-harm, they do not do so as a suicide attempt. Rather, they self-harm as a way to release painful emotions.

ODE Stop School Violence: Threat Assessment Training

The Ohio Department of Education is offering free, evidence-based school violence prevention trainings to school personnel and students statewide using U.S. Department of Justice grant funding allocated through the STOP School Violence Act.

Ohio’s strategic plan for education, Each Child, Our Future, declares the Department’s commitment that every child will learn in an environment that is physically and emotionally safe. Governor Mike DeWine recently announced a proposal to reduce gun violence and increase mental health prevention and treatments. That proposal includes offering school safety assessment and intervention programs through a partnership of the Ohio Department of Education and Sandy Hook Promise.
