

The Disrupting Poverty in Ohio Network

Increasing and Supporting Ohio's Behavioral Healthcare Workforce

October 6, 2022

Ohio is in a behavioral health crisis. Are you aware that:

This program explores how local and state service providers are responding to Ohio's behavioral health workforce crisis. Learn about Ohio's commitment to expand, enhance, and strengthen Ohio's behavioral health system through innovative workforce education initiatives.

Through Ohio's new commitment, behavioral health providers are leading wellness workforce priorities by increasing career awareness, particularly among educators and students; supporting recruitment; incentivizing retention by employers; and supporting contemporary practices to make high-quality care visible, accessible, and effective for our local communities.
