Graduation day for Bobby...

Springtime in Paris is the theme for this year’s Spring Formal which will be held on May 3, 2013 from 1-2 pm. Formal wear will be the attire for this event. Please let your child’s teacher know what your child will be wearing. If you have any extra formal wear, donations are much appreciated! Action DJ’s will provide the music!

Congratulations to Curtis and Shyann on the birth of their son, Cameron Lamar born on the morning of March 15th. He weighed in at 5 lbs, 8 oz and 17 inches in length. The Crook family is happy, healthy and doing well!

Movie Night Fundraiser on March 1, 2013

On Friday, March 1, a Movie Night was held at the Rose-Mary Center School from 7-9 pm. The event was a fundraiser to raise money for additional equipment and on-going maintenance for the adapted playground. The playground was installed over a year ago. Many families and students attended. The movie “Brave” was free, but a fun pack could be purchased for $5.00 and included a pop, popcorn, movie candy and cookie. Hot dogs were available for $1.50.

Brianna from RMC residential came with a staff member. Several students and staff from RMC attended and enjoyed the movies.

Black History Month Celebrated in February

Kathy’s classroom decorated the main hallway’s display case for Black History Month in February. Typical African American dishes were prepared for their students and the colors were worn by all. Pictured below are Kathy, Hazel and Dorothy.

Coddy will Graduate on May 31, 2013

Graduation ceremonies will take place for Coddy on May 31st. He is a Euclid student and entered the school program in April, 2011. Euclid will be presenting his diploma. His teacher, Kathy and classroom staff are preparing a slide show of Coddy. The ceremony will begin at 1:30 with refreshments following immediately. Please join us to celebrate this important day for Coddy.
