Heather Corcoran

System Navigator

2020

BA - Ohio State University

JD - Case Western Reserve University, School of Law

Heather Corcoran is a System Navigator at the Educational Service Center of Northeast Ohio. Heather has a Bachelor of Arts in Sociology and minor in Criminology from OSU, and a Juris Doctorate from CWRU School of Law.

Prior to working at the ESC, Heather spent more than 20 years at the Cuyahoga County Juvenile Court working as the Deputy Director and Director of both the Mediation Department and the Diversion Department. Her prior experience provided her with a widespread background and a wealth of resources for her position as System Navigator. Heather welcomes the new challenges this change in roles will offer her.

Heather lives in Kirtland Hills with her husband, Pat, and their two boys, Patrick and Danny, and their dog and cat. She spends most of her free time traveling to ice rinks around the Midwest watching her boys play hockey. Heather and her family also enjoy cross country skiing, downhill skiing, hiking, and bike riding. Heather is an exercise fanatic (because she loves to bake), and she also enjoys crocheting in the evenings.
