Linda Blanch School Climate Consultant

2020 to present
Bachelor of Music – University of Michigan
M. Ed. – Kent State University

Linda Blanch is a School Climate Consultant for Project Prevent through the Educational Service Center (ESC) of Northeast Ohio. Prior to employment at the ESC, Linda worked as the PBIS Coach for the Euclid City School District. She has also been employed as a school counselor and a general music teacher in the New Hanover County Schools (Wilmington, North Carolina) and Hudson City Schools, respectively.

Linda's primary responsibilities at the ESC include supporting school districts in their efforts to create safe and productive learning environments. This encompasses providing consultative services and professional development in areas such as PBIS, bullying, SEL and restorative practices.

Linda lives in Hudson with her husband, Tom, and their dog, Sadie. She has two adult daughters and two amazing grandsons. She spends her time gardening, collecting art and antiques, and being with family.
