Political uncertainty. Economic uncertainty. Technological uncertainty. Although as leaders you have the ideas, in the face of the uncertainty, educational leaders are often reluctant to take bold action. Many freeze and are too overwhelmed to make decisions. Some try to keep a low profile, and just “wait it out”. Others move backward, or retrench, working to protect their district’s future and their careers.

This professional development, specifically designed for sitting superintendents, will unpack the uncertainties and provide strategies to enhance your personal courage quotient.

Keynote Speaker: Brandon Chrostowski, founder of Edwins Leadership and Restaurant Institute that offers formerly incarcerated adults a foundation in the culinary and hospitality industries and a support network necessary for long-term success.
