

Developing Student Leadership through Character Education for Secondary Educators

Presenter: Joseph M. Houdel, Ph.D.

April 19, 2024

8:30 a.m.—3:00 p.m.

ESC of Northeast Ohio

6393 Oak Tree Blvd. Independence, OH

In this workshop, geared toward secondary educators, participants will:

- learn how to teach character strengths to help students improve social and emotional skills, attitudes, behavior, and academic performance
- learn how character strengths and leadership will help students succeed now in school and later in their careers
- understand the research behind the importance of social emotional learning in schools
- receive specific strategies to teach character and leadership to middle, high and alternative school students

Presenter: Joseph M. Houdel, Ph.D.

Author of Role Models: Examples of Character & Leadership

Joe Houdel is president of Character Development & Leadership, where he has developed an evidence-based classroom curriculum used in 3,500+ schools nationwide and an app-based Student Athlete Program. Being a positive role model and developing the character of each student is the hallmark message of his talks and books. His inspirational message reminds educators and coaches why they entered the profession and how to keep the long-term perspective of students in mind.

Cost: $35 – Participants will receive a copy of Role Models: Examples of Character & Leadership
