

CO-TEACHING: WHY, WHAT, AND HOW

October 3 and 4, 2017

Presented by:
Jackie Lawson,
M.A.T.

Administrators are an essential part of the success of co-teaching programs. Co-teaching involves general education teachers, specialists and administrators working together to design a co-teaching program which best meets the needs of the diverse learners in the classroom. This workshop will address the definition, benefits, and models of co-teaching, as well as scheduling, teaching and observing in co-taught classrooms.
