

THE COACHING CONFERENCE

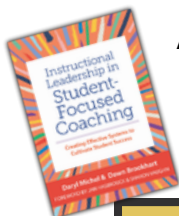

Join us for the ESC of Northeast Ohio Coaching Conference 2026, focused on strengthening instructional leadership and maximizing the impact of coaching. Engage in sessions on student-focused coaching, leadership, systems, culture, and measuring impact—plus a Coaching Impact Showcase highlighting real results. This experience moves coaches and administrators from vision to action, making coaching clear, coherent, and essential to student success.

WHY ATTEND?

- Strengthen your ability to implement student-focused coaching in action
- Build instructional leadership practices that support and sustain coaching
- Develop systems and structures that make coaching consistent and effective
- Explore how culture, trust, and influence impact coaching success
- Learn how to measure coaching impact and ensure long-term sustainability

KEYNOTE SPEAKER - DR. DARYL MICHEL

Dr. Daryl Michel is an internationally recognized leader in instructional coaching and student-focused leadership. Drawing from his work with schools and districts across the country, he helps educators strengthen coaching practices that directly impact teaching and learning. In his keynote, Dr. Michel will share practical strategies for aligning coaching with student evidence, building leadership capacity, and ensuring coaching leads to measurable results.

All registered participants will receive a copy of Dr. Michel's new book, "Instructional Leadership Through Student-Focused Coaching."
