

Disrupting Poverty in Ohio Network

Engaging Latinx/Hispanic Communities

October 30, 2023
1:00 PM - 3:00 PM

Location: ESC of Northeast Ohio
6393 Oak Tree Blvd.
Independence, Ohio 44131

DURING THIS SESSION, PARTICIPANTS WILL

- gain deeper understanding about the Latinx/Hispanic communities, including countries of origin
- consider causes of migration
- explore similarities and differences among communities
- understand cultural nuances
- explore strategies for authentic engagement with stakeholders in our organizations, districts and communities.

Please register in advance

Register Now

To register online, visit www.escneo.org
Professional Learning/calendar of events

No cost to participants but advanced registration is required.

Questions: Contact nadine.grimm@escneo.org

For registration assistance, contact shonte.smith@escneo.org

Presenters: Generosa López-Molina, Ph.D. and Juan Molina Crespo
Consultamos, LLC

Dr. Generosa López-Molina is an executive change agent identifying and advancing best practices in public, private, and non-profit sectors. She leads responsive innovations in community-based organizational systems and educational environments, utilizing cross-industry methodologies of policy analysis, community engagement, partnership building, and strategic development.

Juan Molina Crespo has served as the executive director of the Cleveland Hispanic Alliance, where he implemented initiatives identifying new leaders and supporting existing leadership across the region. He has guided policy development and analysis for legislative changes in immigration, housing, health policy, higher education, and other social justice issues.