This training is designed for teachers who have already been trained on the Early Learning Assessment and are interested in being updated on the changes to the Early Learning Assessment (ELA). This training will review the changes to the assessment, methods to use to capture evidence for scoring the assessment, and connections between the assessment and curriculum goals.

Teachers should bring their curriculum and class schedule.

Participation in an additional technology module will be required January 2016.

Contact Hours: 6.0
