STRENGTHENING THE PUBLIC SCHOOL

PROMISE CONFERENCE

Belonging. Consistency. Coherence.

What if the way we design classrooms, routines, and systems quietly helped every student feel they belong, know what to expect, and access learning—every single day?

Join educators from across the region for learning focused on how IMTSS provides the structure and Executive Functioning provides the skills—supporting student success, engagement, and well-being across schools.

Participants may attend the full in-person conference experience or join virtually for the keynote session with Peg Dawson from 9:00 a.m.–12:00 p.m.

WHY ATTEND?

- Learn how everyday classroom and schoolwide practices can help students feel connected and capable
- Explore ways predictable routines and clear expectations reduce stress and increase engagement
- Build shared approaches that create alignment across classrooms, teams, and grade levels
- Walk away with practical strategies you can apply immediately—no new initiative required
- Strengthen the collective promise we make to students through intentional, aligned systems

KEYNOTE SPEAKER - PEG DAWSON

With more than 40 years of clinical experience, Dr. Peg Dawson has helped thousands of children and teens succeed at home and in school by strengthening executive skills. Co-author of Smart but Scattered, Smart but Scattered Teens, and other leading books on executive functioning, she is a past president of both the National Association of School Psychologists and the International School Psychology Association, and a recipient of NASP's Lifetime Achievement Award.
