

Northeast Ohio Business Advisory Council New Year, New Path to Student Internships

February 4, 2020

Sanjay Parker, Founder and CEO of Knowtion

NextWork's mission is to provide quality job opportunities to high school juniors and seniors by providing exposure, training and life skills required to be successful in a manufacturing, healthcare, or IT environment. NextWork is an experiential learning platform that allows the businesses to offer opportunities for schools, students and the public to engage in a collaborative way. Learn more about how being a part of the NextWork system can provide students with the opportunity to job-shadow, intern or hear from leading experts in the field.

Twinsburg City School District

Norm Potter, Twinsburg City School District Curriculum Supervisor

Twinsburg High School Students who participate in the Academy at Twinsburg High School are eligible for internships. Educators, working with business partnerships, guide students and businesses to create the best internship outcomes. This process began three years ago with the healthcare field and is now being expanded to include manufacturing and IT.
