This virtual professional learning presents evidence-based instructional practices for teaching comprehension strategies in any content area. Participants will learn how to teach a set of strategies that students can apply to support reading comprehension. When used across multiple grade levels, students benefit from a consistent approach to comprehension instruction as they move from grade-to-grade level and subject to subject.

ESCNEO is offering an asynchronous/synchronous model to provide Keys to Comprehension professional learning that combines an online course with live facilitated sessions through Zoom. Educators will independently complete the asynchronous modules and participate in virtually facilitated sessions delivered by a consultant that are trained to facilitate Keys to Literacy courses.

Since the course is asynchronous participants can log in at any time to complete the Keys to Comprehension modules. Participants complete several modules at a time, followed by a facilitated meeting. There will be a total of four facilitated meeting sessions to support the learning within the modules and to provide an opportunity for educators to debrief the activities and share ideas.

Dates for the facilitated sessions will be: Thursday, August 31st Office Hours, 3:30 - 4:30 ; all other sessions will be 3:30 - 5:00 on Wednesday, September 13th; Wednesday, September 27th; Wednesday, October 11th and Wednesday, October 25th.

Audience: 4-12 classroom/content teachers, intervention specialists, educators, curriculum specialists.
