

German Sunday school group on a canal boat at 17-mile lock, Cuyahoga Valley, 1886. Images of America: Cuyahoga Valley

Learning History Locally explores Ohio history of the Ohio-Erie Canal and the Cuyahoga Valley National Park, and their historical and economic significance for the development of Ohio and the nation. This program is offered jointly by the ESC of Cuyahoga County and the Cuyahoga Valley National Park (CVNP). The program is ideal for 4th grade educators developing content knowledge and historical thinking skills to satisfy Ohio's Social Studies Learning Standards. Participants will be immersed in canal resources and activities, primary source documents, and model curriculum. Curricular units will be showcased in a follow-up session during May. Upon completion of the requirements participants earn one graduate credit courtesy of CVNP.
