The Literacy in Action Network is facilitated by Kelly Stukus, Director of Teaching and Learning

School districts today are charged with keeping our students engaged in ever-changing climate where curricular expectations continue to be more rigorous. The life of a literacy leader is not easy and there are many tasks on your plate. This series offers area literacy leaders the opportunity to hear about relevant information, ODE updates, share best practices, and discuss implementation strategies. Every other month will be dedicated to focus on adolescent literacy.
