

Online Book Study

Professional Development for Teachers of Gifted Students

March 13, 2023—May 7, 2023

We will read and discuss the book, Start Seeing & Serving Underserved Gifted Students by Jennifer Ritchotte, Chin-Wen Lee, & Amy Graefe.

This book is packed with over fifty strategies that address how teachers can see, understand, teach, challenge, and advocate for their underserved gifted learners in all content areas.

Audience: Elementary, Middle, and High School Teachers, Intervention Specialists, Gifted Coordinators, and Administrators, especially those who need professional development hours to meet the operating standards to service gifted students

Districts are encouraged to register a group of teachers to collaborate in this online learning experience.

Participants will earn 15 hours that can count for this year or upcoming years' requirements for teachers who serve gifted students.

Course Objectives

Participants will:

- Examine practices that promote student engagement and critical thinking
- Investigate and consider how to efficiently apply and implement differentiation strategies into their current practice

Course Overview

- 6 week, asynchronous online course
- Final project due May 7, 2023
- Weekly reading assignments and discussion questions in Google Classroom
- Weekly reading, responses, and discussion posts will earn participants a total of 15 contact hours with the option to purchase 1 graduate credit through Ashland University

Facilitator: Megan Kinney ESC of Northeast Ohio Gifted Coordinator & Consultant

Cost: $25.00 per person

Participant is responsible for purchase of book

Contact Hours: 15

1 graduate credit hour at a reduced rate available through Ashland University

REGISTRATION: Registration located on our website at www.escneo.org PD/Calendar of Events

Registration Assistance: Contact Roni Staimpel at: roni.staimpel@escneo.org