

Notable Children's Books for a Global Society

Presented by:

Gail Greenberg, MS, Ed.

Teacher, K-12 School Librarian and Media Specialist

Date:

September 4, 2020

Times:

Sign in 8:30 am

Training: 9:00 —12:00 pm

Location:

Educational Service Center of Cuyahoga County—Essex Place 6393 Oak Tree Boulevard Independence, OH 44131

Cost: FREE

Professional Development Contact Hours: 3.0

One Graduate Credit available for additional work through Ashland University at participant cost.

Questions:

Contact Nadine Grimm at 216-901-4243 or nadine.grimm@escneo.org

Enrich your students' global engagement and content-aligned explorations of people and cultures throughout the world. Explore children's book selections from Notable Books for a Global Society (NBGS), a subcommittee of The Children's Literature and Reading Special Interest Group affiliated with the International Literacy Association.

In this workshop, Ms. Greenberg will focus on instructional strategies and best practices that creatively integrate exceptional children's books, reflective of diversity and global perspectives on teaching and learning. Participants will have opportunities for hands-on preview and discussion of new and notable titles, exemplary authors, a wide variety of voices, and a wealth of related resources, tools, and themes.

Online registration is required Www.escneo.org professional development/calendar of events

Gail Greenberg is a past recipient of INFOhio's Hugh Durbin Library Leadership Award and a Martha Holden Jennings Scholar. She has received a We the People Bookshelf award, Laura Bush Foundation for America's Libraries grants, and U.S. Department of Education Improving Literacy Through School Libraries grant. She has participated in State Library of Ohio Library Leadership Ohio Summer Institute, as well as numerous National Endowment for the Humanities summer teacher institutes. She is a member of the American Library Association and American Association of School Librarians.

