

OLi4 Cohort 2020-2021

Principal Leadership Matters

March 12, 2020

OLi4 (Ohio Leadership for Inclusion, Implementation and Instructional Improvement) is an initiative in Ohio that has been in existence since 2014. A program developed for principals by an Ohio university in conjunction with the Ohio Department of Education and funded by grant dollars. The program provides professional development for district leadership as well as one to one coaching for building principals. Also, principals from across Ohio within a leadership cohort will have many opportunities to collaborate and network with each other.

Superintendents, Principals, All District Administrators:

A new cohort is forming for the 2020-21 school year and each cohort is for two years.

Dr. Pamela VanHorn, from the University of Cincinnati, and project coordinator will be here to share information about the program and to answer questions. Cost to district is nominal. As in the past, district cost has only been for mileage to attend the professional development sessions. In addition, Principals can earn credit for their participation and/or contact hours for their license renewal. We hope you can come!
