

Ohio's State Tests Accessibility Manual Training

Wednesday, March 1, 2017

Participants will learn the accessibility features on Ohio's State Tests and be able to find resources and guidance to support these features. Participants will also be able to define the difference between accommodations for daily instruction and classroom assessment and allowable accommodations on Ohio's State Tests. The professional development will include a decision-making framework to assist IEP teams in making individual data-based decisions of appropriate accommodations for students with disabilities.

There is no charge for this professional development; however, preregistration is required.

Participants are asked to bring a laptop or iPad/tablet.
