

PBIS TIER III INTERVENTIONS

FOR PBIS TEAMS SUPPORTING STUDENTS WITH INTENSIVE NEEDS

Join us for a comprehensive three-day professional development series designed for PBIS Tier III teams to attend together. This training will strengthen team capacity to design, implement, and sustain individualized behavioral supports within a schoolwide PBIS framework.

✱ New for This Series: Focus on TFI 3.0

This year's series will emphasize how to use the Tiered Fidelity Inventory (TFI) 3.0 to guide planning, assess readiness, and evaluate Tier III implementation.

Teams currently using TFI 2.1 will receive practical support in understanding key updates and making a smooth, informed transition to TFI 3.0.

WHAT YOU'LL LEARN:

- Tier III systems and infrastructure
- Conducting and using formal behavior assessments (e.g., FBA/BIP)
- Creating and monitoring individualized student behavior support plans
- Strategies to minimize instructional disruptions and increase engagement
- How to apply TFI 3.0 and transition from TFI 2.1

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

School personnel working in districts/buildings who are focused on Tier III readiness and implementation, including:

- School counselors, psychologists, and administrators
- Related service providers and behavior specialists
- Outside agency partners supporting school-based teams
