

Planning for the Good Life (Graduation Pathways and Beyond)

October 11, 2023

State Support
Team

Location: Virtual—Zoom

Preparing students to live the "good life" after graduating from high school requires multiple supports from those that are eligibility specific to those that are family and community based. Join us for a day of learning about how best practices in secondary transition, coupled with the many different types of integrated supports can help each student realize his/her good life. Large group sessions and breakout sessions will focus on topics such as:

- Best Practices in Secondary Transition Planning
- Preparing for the Good Life Starting in Kindergarten
- Planning for Parallel Pathways to the Ohio Diploma
- Supported Decision Making
- Self Determination
- Partnering with Adult Service Agencies
- Planning for the Financial Good Life
- Accessing Community Resources
- Safe Community Travel
- Families as Partners
- Post-Secondary Education For All
- Charting the Life Course Framework Thinking
