

The Digital Engagement Series is a set of online modules that can provide a lifeline to teachers who are tasked with engaging students both in-person and online. Nearly 1000 teachers are currently registered and are finding it to be a valuable resource, not only for this uncertain start to school, but also as a supportive professional learning network throughout the school year.

We have negotiated a discount on individual purchases for our member districts. Additionally, site licenses are available for one course, a custom set of courses, or the full series. Site licenses will provide access for all members of your organization to include teachers, para professionals, administrators, and substitutes. Full series packages are available for as little as $5,000 for a small school, with economy of scale pricing for the larger districts and career and technical centers.
