

The Right to Vote:

The 15th and 19th Amendments

Commemorating the 150th and 100th anniversaries of America's most important Constitutional suffrage amendments

Learn about the history of voting rights in America!
Earn graduate credit!

Workshop on Primary Sources:
6 – 9 pm, 19 February 2020
Cleveland State University & Online

- Focus on locating, analyzing, and using national and local primary sources on suffrage
- Practice with digital tools such as Storyline, StoryMap, Timeline, etc.
- Featuring Corrine L. Porter, exhibition curator, Rightfully Hers: American Women and the Vote at the National Archives in Washington, D.C. (featured on national media!)
- Teachers throughout Ohio will be able to participate interactively online through the online communication tool Zoom.

The Right to Vote:

The 15th and 19th Amendments

Film and Discussion:
6 – 9 pm, 19 March 2020
Cleveland State University

Featuring a discussion led by Dr. Andrea DeKoter, Superintendent, Women's Rights National Historical Park, Seneca Fall, NY

Votes for All: The 15th and 19th Amendments
8-10 October 2020
Cleveland State University

- Teacher symposium: Present and share experiences and strategies teaching the history of voting rights
- Attend scholarly panels
- Keynote address by Dr. Lisa Tetrault, Carnegie-Mellon University

Register online at the Educational Service Center of Northeast Ohio website: www.escneo.org, then select Professional Development, Calendar of events. For information contact Nadine.grimm@escneo.org.

Sponsored by the Educational Service Center of Northeast Ohio, the History Department at Cleveland State University, and by Ohio Humanities, a state affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities. Any views, findings, conclusions or recommendations expressed in this institute do not necessarily represent those of the National Endowment for the Humanities.