February 9, 2018, March 2, 2018 and May 11, 2018

Time: 9:00 a.m. - 11:30 a.m. Contact Hours: 2.5

Description: This leadership network is for leaders of equity, the Ohio Improvement Process, Positive Behavior Intervention Supports, and Family Community Engagement. The purpose of the series is to empower leaders to integrate equity, family and community engagement, the Ohio Improvement Process and Positive Behavior Interventions and Supports as aligned to vision and mission statements for student achievement by:

- Discussing topics, products, processes, and research
- Sharing best practices among participants
- Coaching leaders to build their capacity to move the work forward
- Strengthening implementation and monitoring processes

We will emphasize implementation science, coaching, and collegial sharing at all meetings with specific topics for each session connected to equity, the Ohio Improvement Process, Positive Behavior Intervention Supports, and Family and Community Engagement.

Audience: All leaders working to implement equity practices, the Ohio Improvement Process (OIP), Positive Behavior Intervention Supports (PBIS), Family/Community Engagement (FCE) practices, and participants in the Closing the Achievement Gap series who are leading implementation of social justice practices in their districts and schools.
