

Eliciting Student Responses

---

Join us for a free virtual 1 hour workshop

3:30 PM—4:30 PM

February 3, 2022 or March 1, 2022

Facilitated by Jamie Smith, M.Ed., ESC Consultant

How do we ensure that our students are really thinking about what we are teaching? This one-hour online session will discuss successful ways for teachers to create learning environments where students thrive by promoting individual accountability through elicitation of student responses. Let's learn about the variety of ways we can make learning visible for our students through overt teaching techniques.
