

A.I. Literacy Institute:

Learning Strategies,
Teacher Efficiencies, and a Vision for Using AI in Your Classroom

Sessions I-III

Presenter: Vicki Turner, Ph.D., Technology Director, Berea City Schools

In these sessions, participants will explore A.I. applications for the core disciplines, specials and makerspaces, with suggestions for teacher professional development, technology help, resources and quick tips for using A.I. with ease in your classroom.

Session IV

Presenter: Dr. John Spencer, author of The A.I. Roadmap: Human Learning in the Age of Smart Machines

In this session, participants will consider how A.I. is transforming creative thinking, information literacy, project-based learning, personalized learning, assessment, and how we might keep a human-centered focus as we navigate these changes.
