

PICTURE THIS: WHAT'S BEST FOR CHILDREN?

ASPIRING SCHOOL LEADERS REGIONAL EDUCATION CONFERENCE

Monday, May 1, 2017, 8 a.m.-2:30 p.m.

Location: Education Service Center - Cuyahoga County
6393 Oak Tree Blvd., Independence, OH 44131

School leaders, teachers, staff, families, learners, board members and community members are welcome to attend this free event. Breakfast, snacks and lunch will be served by K-12 school clubs.

8:30 a.m. Registration

9 - 9:55 a.m. Three Sessions Offered:

- Improving Family-Community Relations
- Instructional Leadership
- Supporting Teacher Performance

10 - 10:55 a.m. Three Sessions Offered:

- Meeting the Social/Emotional Needs of Your School Community
- Authentic School Reform
- Unpacking Culture in K-12 Schools

11 - 11:55 a.m. Networking Session/Lunch

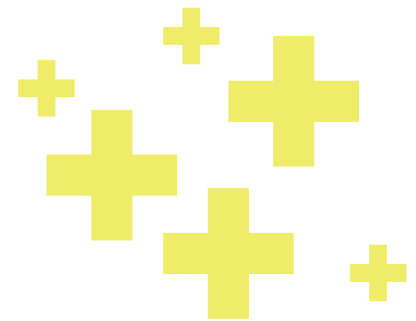

12 - 12:55 p.m. Three Sessions Offered:

- Promoting Personalized Learning
- The Power of Home Visits
- Neoliberalism 101 for K-12 U.S. Schools

1 - 1:55 p.m. Three Sessions Offered:

- Meeting the Needs of Learners who Identify English as a Second Language (ESL)
- The Power of Thinking Outside the Box to Meet the Diverse Needs of School Communities
- Global Learners

2-2:30 p.m. Evaluations, Door Prize Raffle and Wrap-up

REGISTRATION IS LIMITED TO 100 PEOPLE. REGISTER NO LATER THAN APRIL 21 AT 11:59 PM.

WWW.ESC-CC.ORG/PROTECTED/EVENTREGISTRATION.ASPX?RCODE=4UYBFI

HOSTED BY THE KENT STATE UNIVERSITY EDUCATIONAL ADMINISTRATION PROGRAM.

KENT STATE UNIVERSITY

College of Education,
Health and Human Services